

The water on Earth is used over and over – recycled in the water cycle.

The water in a watershed
flows from high to low

In urban watersheds, water washes over buildings and pavement.
What kinds of pollutants does it carry?

Eventually
the water
reaches soil.

Some of our drinking water comes from underground
aquifers.

Infiltration is when water moves through layers of soil with different particle sizes.